WORK FOR REDUCED RATES.

Concerted Action Necessary to Prevent Discrimination.

Chicago Doesn't Want Us to Get Any World's Fair Visitors.

The seeming attempt of certain railroads to discriminate against this city in the matter of reduced fares to and from Chicago during the World's Fair, as told in Saturday's Evening World, is still the talk of business men, and the outlook is that with concerted action on the part of the business community the popular demand for a low rate of fare will be accorded to.

It was said this morning that the Trans-Atlantic Association's Executive Committee, which is composed of the vice-presidents and general managers of the big railroads east of Chicago, will meet the latter part of the week and consider the World's Fair rate subject, which has been referred to them for settlement by a discount special committee of passenger agents.

The protestations on the part of business men, as voiced by the creation of a Special Committee of the Chamber of Commerce for the purpose of securing a low fare, have already had a beneficial effect, and it is reported on good authority that the Executive Committee will in all probability refer the matter back to the Special Committee with the recommendation that a low rate be agreed upon.

by the recommendation, but whether the rate will be satisfactorily low is a question. That Chicago is doing its best to prevent New York getting any of the visitors from the South and West, and the financial benefits resulting from their presence, is apparent to far-sighted business men.

To an Evening World reporter today, however, a member of the Special Passenger Committee declared that Chicago had any influence in the fixing of fair rates.

"There is a slight minority of us," he said, "who favor one-way reduced rates, which will enable Western visitors to come here if they choose. But there is another thing, and that is that if we made a very low rate—for instance, a one-way rate for the round trip—the crowd will be so great that our capacity for handling traffic will be seriously impaired."

"We are willing, for instance, to fix the rate at $10 or $12, making each way $5 or $6, which is about a 25 per cent. reduction on the regular round-trip fare. Then we will run special trains for working people, the round trip to be fixed at the one-way rate."

"While we favor reduced one-way rates we are opposed by certain roads which insist that there shall be a round trip rate for all to be fixed at $10. They advance the same argument of possible impairment of traffic facilities, and that is all."

"How the matter will be adjusted it is hard to forecast, but if the business community come bodily to the front it will do much in effecting a great reduction."

THEY MET THE UNKNOWN.

Two More Men in Hospitals To-Day as the Result.

John Gillen, twenty-four years old, of 106 Mulberry street, and a fight with an unknown man at West and Canal streets at 1 o'clock this morning, during which he received severe stab wounds in the face and neck. He was sent to Chambers Street Hospital.

John F. Notbocker, aged sixty, residence unknown, was found at Second Avenue and Third Street early today morning, bleeding from a severe wound on the back of the head, which he received at the hands of an unknown assailant. He was taken to Presbyterian Hospital.

SHOT DOWN BY A POLICEMAN.

Martin Smith May Die from the Bullet Wound.

The Officer Charged Him with Stealing Columbian Decorations.

Martin Smith, nineteen years old, of 400 East Third street, a driver at Canada & Kane's brickyard, is lying in Bellevue Hospital in a critical condition from the effects of a bullet wound under the right shoulder blade. The shot was fired by Policeman William Hoyer, who says he found Smith, with two companions, stealing decorations from houses in East Fifty-first street. The trio ran from the officer and Smith was shot after being commanded to halt.

The shooting occurred about 1 o'clock yesterday morning, when, Policeman Hoyer alleges, he saw Smith and the others sneaking up to private residences and taking away the best flags. Hoyer watched them going to several houses and was still watching them without having made any effort to make an arrest when one of the young men, who were then at 210 East 51st street, noticed the officer and gave the alarm. At this time Policeman Hoyer fired his revolver and the bullet struck Smith in the back of the head, just above the ear, and he fell. Hoyer says he then threw his club at the fugitive, but missed him and then cried:

"Smith did not stop and Hoyer fired. Policeman Hoyer came by just then and caught the young man as he was about to fall. He was found that Hoyer's bullet had hit his mark and that the wound was probably fatal. Hoyer was arrested and was paroled by Justice Weide, of the Yorkville court, in the custody of Capt. Reilly.

SHE DROWNED HERSELF.

Suicide of an Esteemed Young Woman of Staten Island.

The drowning in Narragansett Pond, near her home, of Miss Jennie, daughter of Raymond Jones, of West New Brighton, S. I., is reported this morning. She committed suicide Saturday afternoon.

The young woman was left at home Saturday, apparently in good spirits, by her father, who came to New York on his return to the afternoon train. She was missing, but it was supposed that she had gone to Brooklyn to visit friends. She was found at various times between 10 in the morning and 4 in the afternoon sitting on the end of a platform, but extended several feet out into the water. When it became known that she was missing search was made, and her body was found in the pond.

The girl was a member of the Trinity M. E. church, and an earnest worker in the Christian Endeavor society. She had been in for several months, and it is supposed that she drowned herself while temporarily insane.

GOING TO COLLECT $148,000.

A Delusion Which Sent Policeman Gaffney to Bellevue.

All his brother officers in the Police street station are today laughing at the attention which befell Policeman Hugh Gaffney last night. He was suddenly attacked with an insane fit in the station-house, and the sergeant was obliged to call for an ambulance. It was said at Bellevue Hospital that he was suffering from delirium tremens. At the station-house it was given out that Gaffney was simply "off his nut," because he had been drinking for the past two weeks.

Nothing which happened him as erratic as his present fit, however, had been noted. He was taken to the hospital last night.
